

HOUSE FURNISHINGS SALE

AT THE STORE OF THE

A. H. Culver Furniture Co.

The volume of business done by this store for the first ten months of 1907 was simply enormous. In anticipation of a continuation and always desirous of serving our patron's interest in the BEST manner we have kept in touch with the market, with factories and mills for months in order to have all the GOOD things in House Furnishings at the right price when the trade demanded them. The slight depression in business caught our store loaded with good seasonable goods, Furniture of quality, bought worth the money. This may not interest the readers of this paper, but the fact that we are going to unload this surplus stock in
